Main Factors Influencing Entrepreneurial Behaviour (The Case of Bulgaria)

Marina Marinova

University of National and World Economy (Bulgaria)

Abstract

This paper summaries the main factors influencing entrepreneurial behavior, using their popular categorization of internal and external factors. This sets the ground for analysis of Bulgarian cultural, political and economic factors that determine the specific mentality of Bulgarian entrepreneurs. The focus in the paper is mainly on psychological and cultural factors influencing entrepreneurship.