

Business Transfer in Europe: good practices and tools

Toni Brunello and Paolo Zaramella

Abstract

The overall objective of the paper concerns policies that stakeholders should plan and act for facilitating business transfers. Contents come from concrete experiences that authors collected in the last years, also analysing methodologies and practices all around Europe.

Key words: business transfer, family firms, institutional support